Requires waiting....

“It is not for you to know the times or the seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority” (v7)

The fulfillment of God’s promises often involve a period of waiting which we don’t know how long will last.

Depends upon Jesus.....

“Nevertheless, I tell you the truth, it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don’t go away, the help will not come.” - John 16:7

“Now this he said about the Spirit, whom those who believed in him were to receive, for as yet the Spirit had not been given, because Jesus was not yet glorified.” - John 7:39

The promise of the Father was dependant on Jesus’ ascending to the right hand of the Father.

Brings Power....

*”But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.”
(v8)*

“Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever believes in me will also do the works that I do and greater works than these will he do, because I am going to the Father. - John 14:12

“And I will ask the Father and he will give you another helper to be with you forever...” - John 14:15

The promise of the Father is the gift of the Holy Spirit given to those who believe in Jesus in order to testify to the world about Him.

Reflection:

How have you experienced the power of the Holy Spirit in your own life?

Have you lost hope in experiencing the fullness and power of the Holy Spirit?

Do you believe there is more to the Holy Spirit than what you have experienced?
